The Council of Administrators Section is proud to recognize Dennis Fries as their 2013 Amazing Person. Denny received a bachelor of science degree in physical education from SUNY Cortland, a master of science degree in education and a school district administrators certificate from the College at Brockport. He is also recognized by the NIAAA as a Certified Master Athletic Administrator. Denny has worked forty years in education, as a physical educator and as a Director of Health, Physical Education and Athletics. He worked in the West Irondequoit School District for 39 of those years and one year as the Director of Health, Physical Education and Athletics for the Churchville Central School District. In service to the Council of Administrators Section, Denny has been the treasurer, the conference registration chairperson, and he is the COA web manager. He is the Executive Director of Operation Offense, a task force that takes the offensive in education and prevention activities directed at young athletes use and abuse of chemicals. He served as the president of the National Interscholastic Athletic Administrators Association and as co-chair of the Section 1 Summer Institute. Denny has been honored with numerous awards, including the Council of Administrators, Director of Physical Education of the Year Award, the Council of Administrators Service Award, the Council of Administrators “Ellis H. Champlin” Award, the National Interscholastic Athletic Administrators Associations Distinguished Service Award and most recently the National Interscholastic Athletic Administrators Association Citation Award. It is with great pleasure that the Council of Administrators Section recognizes Dennis Fries as their 2013 Amazing Person.
