The Catskill Zone is proud to recognize Ken Wojehowski as their 2013 Amazing Person. Ken received his bachelor of education degree in physical education from Southern Connecticut State University and his master of science degree from Long Island University. Ken has been teaching at Sloatsburg Elementary School in the Ramapo Central School District for sixteen years and he has served as the Director of Elementary Physical Education for the past ten years. He has served on the Wellness Policy Committee, Student Learning Objective Committee, Elementary Physical Education Curriculum Development Team, and the Committee on Special Education. He has also served as the coordinator for the district-wide Jump Rope for Heart events and has been a mentor for the Start Something Initiative, an educational program encouraging children to set a specific personal goal and begin taking steps to achieve it. He has coordinated district-wide professional development opportunities for staff, including Project Adventure, Dartfish, Tchoukball, HOPSports and Drums Alive. Ken is a committed member of NYS AHPERD and the Catskill Zone. He has served the Zone as secretary, treasurer, newsletter editor, co-conference coordinator and Zone president. In service to NYS AHPERD, he is a member of the Advocacy Committee and has presented at numerous state conferences. In recognition of his commitment to excellence and his dedication to his students, Ken is being honored with the 2013 NYS AHPERD Elementary Teacher of the Year Award tomorrow evening. It is with great pleasure that the Catskill Zone recognizes Ken Wojehowski as their 2013 Amazing Person.
