The Higher Education/Professional Preparation Section is proud to recognize Dr. Lynn Couturier as their 2013 Amazing Person. Lynn received her bachelor of science degree in physical education from Springfield College, her master of science degree in biomechanics from the University of Illinois, her doctor of physical education from Springfield College and her master of arts degree in American studies from Trinity College. She is a Professor and Chair of the Physical Education Department at SUNY Cortland. Lynn is an active member of NYS AHPERD, the Higher Education/Professional Preparation Section, EDA, AAHPERD and NASPE. She is the past president of NASPE and a current member of the AAHPERD Strategic Planning Committee, and the NASPE Curriculum Framework & Standards Revision Task Force. Lynn has served as the EDA Vice President for Recreation and the Outstanding Student Majors Program Coordinator. She has also served as chair of the Constitution, Bylaws and Operating Code Committee, as a member of the EDA Student Scholarship Committee, and the Honor Award Committee. She has authored numerous articles and has had work published in, The Sportswoman, the Journal of Sports History, the Journal of Physical Education, Recreation and Dance and Military Psychology. She is currently working on a book to accompany the revised K-12 learning standards and grade level outcomes for physical education. Lynn has been honored with the EDA Honor Award. It is with great pleasure that the Higher Education/Professional Preparation Section recognizes Dr. Lynn Couturier as their 2013 Amazing Person.