The Higher Education/Professional Preparation Section is honored to recognize Dr. Sheri Treadwell as their 2019 Amazing Person. Sheri received her Bachelor of Science degree from Vanguard University of Southern California, a master’s degree from Florida State University, and a doctorate in sport pedagogy from the University of Northern Colorado. She is an associate professor at The College at Brockport and serves as both the coordinator for edTPA and student teachers. Sheri has authored several academic publications and has made numerous professional development presentations. She is a primary instructor for the NYS AHPERD Curriculum & Assessment Guidance Document workshops. Sheri has served as president of New York State Professional Preparation Council for Physical Education, and served as a scientific committee member for the 2019 International Association for Physical Education in High Education Conference. She has served as president of the Higher Education Section, and has also served on the Central Western Zone board as the Higher Education Section representative. Sheri has been honored with the Qualitative Researcher Award by the Journal of Qualitative Research in Sport. It is with great pleasure the Higher Education recognizes Dr. Sheri Treadwell as their 2019 Amazing Person.
